Description

Finished in Mythos Black, this 2019 Audi A1 TFSI S line Competition is a standout hot hatch, offering strong performance wrapped in a compact, premium package. With low mileage of just 34,660 miles and supplied as an Audi Manufacturer Approved vehicle, it delivers both excitement and reassurance. Under the bonnet sits Audi's punchy 2.0-litre Euro 6 petrol engine, providing impressive performance that's rarely found in this class. The S line Competition trim gives the car a purposeful, sporty stance, complemented by 17-inch 5-spoke V-design alloy wheels with a partly polished finish. This example benefits from the Plus Pack, adding climate control to ensure a comfortable cabin in all conditions. Everyday usability is further enhanced by a Bluetooth interface for seamless connectivity and a light and rain sensor, automatically managing headlights and wipers. Despite its compact footprint, the A1 also offers a surprisingly generous boot, making it practical for daily use and weekends away. Performance is a real highlight. With 0–62mph in just 6.5 seconds, this A1 delivers genuine hot-hatch pace, comfortably outperforming many rivals while remaining easy and enjoyable to drive.
